The District Authority / Institution after giving 30 days clear notice in writing expressing the intension of termination by stating the ground/grounds on the happening of any of the events (as mentioned below), may terminate the agreement after giving reasonable opportunity of being heard to the service provider :

- 1) If the service provider do not remedy a failure in the performance of his obligations within 15 days of receipt of notice or within such further period as the District Authority / Institution have subsequently approve in writing.
- 2) If the service provider becomes insolvent or bankrupt.
- 3) If, as a result of force majeure, the service provider is unable to perform a material portion of the services for a period of not less than 60 days: or
- 4) If, in the judgment of the District Authority / Institution, the service provider is engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for or in implementation of the project.

4.10 Modifications

Modifications in terms of reference including scope of the services can only be made by the district authority / institution with written consent of both parties. However, basic conditions of the contract shall not be modified.

4.11 Force Majeure

Laundry Services as being an essential service, the Service Provider shall not be allowed to suspend or discontinue the services during occurrences of emergencies or Force Majeure Events.

For the purposes of this contract, "Force Majeure" means an event which is beyond the reasonable control of a Party, is not foreseeable, is unavoidable, and not brought about by or at the instance of the Party claiming to be affected by such events and which has caused the non-performance or delay in performance and which makes a Party's performance of its obligations hereunder impossible or so impractical as reasonably to be considered impossible in the circumstances, and includes, but is not limited to war, riots, civil disorder, earthquake, fire, explosion, storm, flood or other adverse weather conditions, strikes, lockouts or other industrial action (except where such strikes, lockouts or other industrial action are within the power of the Party invoking Force Majeure to prevent), confiscation or any other action by Government agencies.

In such circumstances of emergencies and Force Majeure Event, if the Performance Standards are not complied with because of any damage caused to laundry services or any of the Project Facilities or non availability of staff, or inability to Provide services in accordance with the Performance Standards as a direct consequence of such Force Majeure Events or circumstances, then no penalties shall be applicable for the relevant default in Performance Standards and would be applied to such particular defaults. Further, unless the Force Majeure event is of such nature that it completely prevents the operation of services, a suspension or failure to provide laundry Services on the occurrence of a Force Majeure event will be an Event of Default and the District authority may terminate this Agreement without any termination payment being made in respect thereof.

The failure of a party to fulfill any of its obligations under the agreement shall not be considered to be a default in so far as such inability arises from an event of force majeure, provided that the party affected by such an event has taken all reasonable precautions, due care and reasonable alternative measures in order to carry out the terms and conditions of the agreement and has informed the other party as soon as possible about the occurrence of such an event.

4.12 Settlement of Dispute

If any dispute with regard to the interpretation, difference or objection whatsoever arises in connection with or arises out of the agreement, or the meaning of any part thereof, or on the rights, duties or liabilities of any party, the same shall be referred to Committee constituted at the District level for decision.

4.13 Jurisdiction of Court

Legal proceedings if any shall be subject to the concerned District jurisdiction only.

4.14 Right to Accept and Reject any Proposal

The District Authority / Institution / Tender Inviting Authority reserve the right to accept or reject any proposal at any time without any liability or any obligation for such rejection or annulment and without assigning any reason.
